Hello ! I'm so glad to receive your information, and I have sent your details to the delivery service and I will let you know when they will bring the money to you in your country as charity luggage. I believe in you because the almighty God has directed me to you and he knows that you will help me with your good heart, you are such a good person. I will offer you 15% from the money when you received it for your personal use . All you have to do is to help me and receive the money and deliver it to the churches, orphanages and widows so that I will have rest of mind when I am gone to meet my creator and hope you will not disappoint me because I believe in you.

I will send to you the delivery company email so that you can write to them tell them you have a luggage in their company and send your information to them to confirm

Hello, The Doctor gave me an injection and it really disturbs me. I am really happy to meet you here as a sincere person to help me with this charity project. I made this decision because I don't have any children to inherit this money. Moreover, my husband's relatives have not been close to me since I encountered the Cancer problem because they are not good relation to me and they look forward to seeing me die in order to inherit My husband's wealth since we didn't have children. These people do not deserve this inheritance, I had to take a bold step towards this issue because I had no other
